

General Assembly 2018
12-14 April, Landshut

Resolution on the minimum threshold

- A. whereas the protection of minorities is a fundamental dimension of a democratic society;
- B. whereas the introduction of a minimum threshold in the electoral law of the European Union harms the plurality of the European Parliament;
- C. whereas the motto of the European Union is 'United in diversity';

The European Free Alliance:

1. Calls on the Council and the European Parliament to reject the introduction of a mandatory minimum threshold for the allocation of seats in the electoral law of the European Union.