ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

The European Free Alliance [EFA] promotes the right to self-determination and supports the aspirations which EFA member parties have, including independence, greater autonomy and linguistic and cultural recognition.

EFA assembles political parties involved in the quest for enhanced self-government for stateless nations, regions, territories and communities.

EFA aims for European unity in diversity, creating a European Union of free Peoples based on the principle of subsidiarity, in solidarity with each other and other peoples of the world.

EFA promotes a European cooperation based on the diversity of nations, regions, peoples, cultures and languages.

EFA promotes the process of internal enlargement within the European institutions and elsewhere as the mechanism by which nations who gain the statute of a State remain as an EU member state.

EFA does actively support the ongoing democratic self-determination processes across the EU.

EFA argues that stateless nations have the right of self-government and of participation in the world and in the European Union on equal terms with other nationalities, some of which are the possessors of statehood, others not.
EFA rejects the two extreme solutions that are presented in the current debate on the future of the European Union paying a way out of the crisis: the centralised and unitarian model or the retreat into the nation state.

EFA advocates the bottom-up approach of a European Union of free peoples based on the principle of subsidiarity who co-operate where necessary in the policy areas where a European added value offers a better policy outcome.

EFA shares the democratic values that underpin membership in the European Union: human rights, respect for democracy and its foundations, gender equality, rejection of racism and xenophobia. It represents a vision of Europe that promotes a more just and more democratic world, including by building solidarity with the peoples struggling for self-determination.
